ROUNDTABLES / TECHNICAL FORUMS

Communication is the key for further economic development and the cross-linking of potential business partners. We would like to talk to you. Three times a year we plan the BCIX round tables (in German: „Stammtisch") to get to know and connect people and peers.
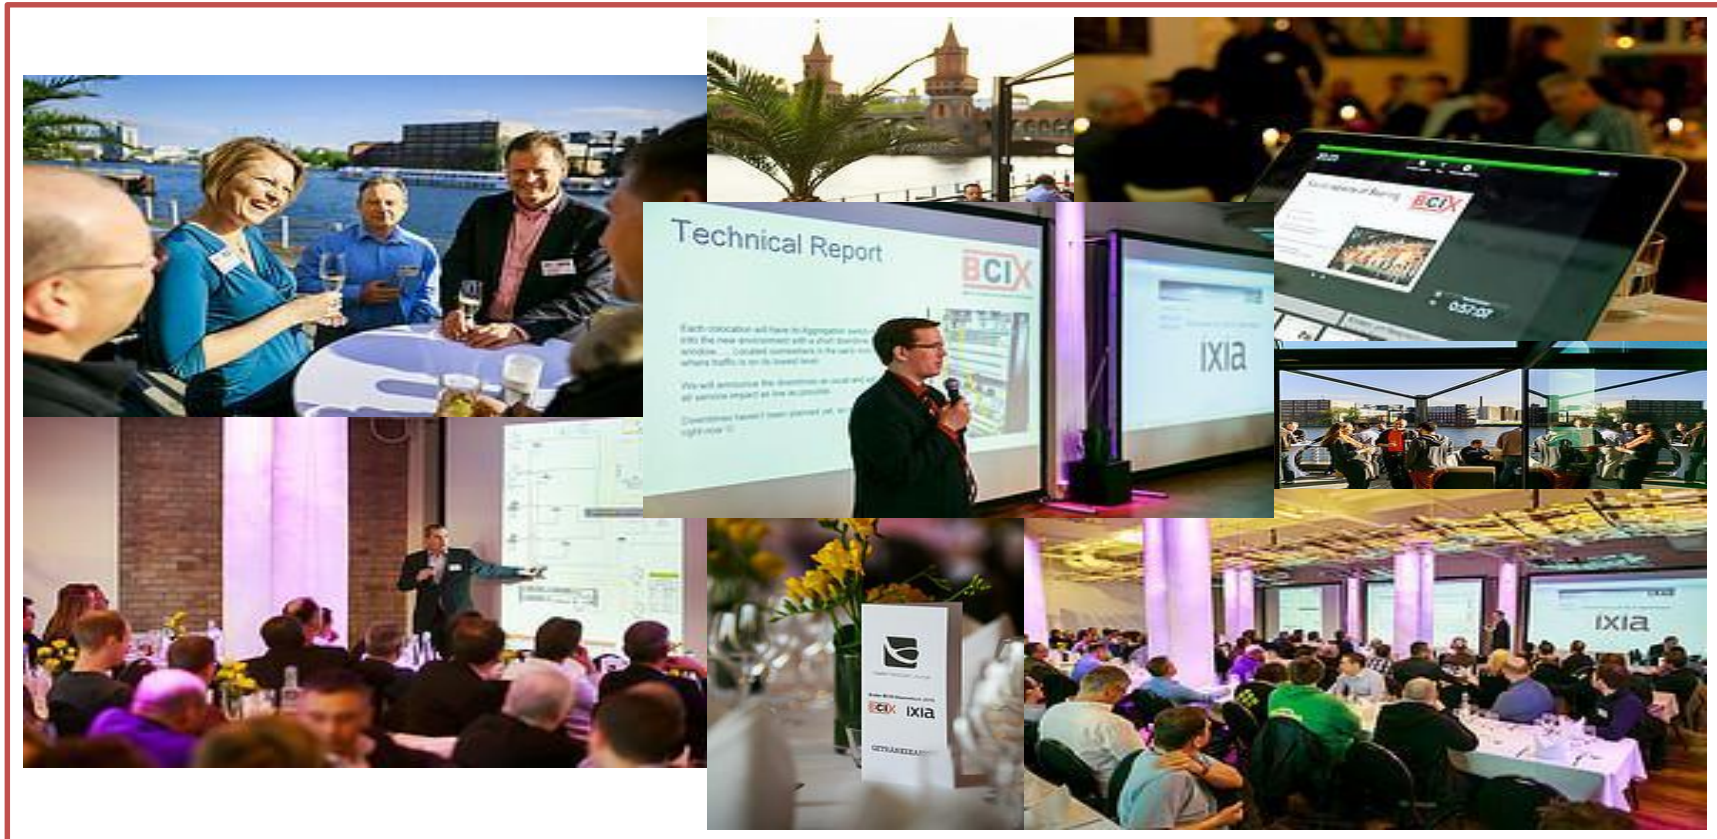

At our roundtables and forums, participants have the chance to exchange ideas on new and bleeding-edge innovations and technical trends, as well as to inform themselves about the most current solutions.

The focus of all presentations at our events is technical. We strongly discourage marketing and sales during the presentations.

In such an atmosphere, meeting the BCIX community is a fun, informative and memorable experience for each and every participant. You can sign in to our newsletter which includes the invitation to BCIX events on our website www.bcix.de
